

SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND SEXUAL ABUSE (SEA) have no place in the work of operators in the humanitarian sector, and the organisations that provide humanitarian services

If a member of staff of a humanitarian organisation attempts to obtain or effectively obtains sexual favours, in exchange for money or other goods, to your detriment or to the detriment of someone you know, or has forced you or any other person to have sex or perform any other act of a sexual nature, REPORT IT!

You can make a report to any organisation, directly, anonymously, or on behalf of someone else. Reporting sexual exploitation or abuse will NOT prevent you from receiving assistance, nor will it interrupt the provision of any services

HOW DO I REPORT?

Contact an expert member of staff or come in to the office of one of the organisations involved to make a report in person
